Section IV

1. SELECTION PROCESS

- A. The Chairperson will receive all applications and will exclude information from the scoring committee member packets, which identifies the name of the applicant, applicant's parent or guardian, the parent or guardian's employer, or applicant's past participation in the program. Each applicant will be assigned an alphabet.
- B. The Scholarship Scoring Committee will be comprised of a minimum of (5) five members. In the unlikely event less than (3) three TSC Scholarship Board Members are available for voting, the TSC Chairperson will appoint additional persons to complete the selection process in a timely manner.
- C. The scoring committee will review each packet to determine the "well-roundedness" of candidates, application completeness, compliance with eligibility requirements overall financial need. Based on this criterion, the scoring committee will either vote YES or NO on whether the applicants qualifies for further evaluation for the current year scholarship scoring system. Applicants that qualify will be scored by each voting committee member based on selected criteria established by and approved by the Board. Each applicant will be objectively scored based on GPA, extra curricular activities, church activity, leadership, community service, work experience and overall financial need. The Chairperson will then tally the points and the top scores will be awarded the scholarship.
- D. Any member of the Scholarship Foundation Committee who is related to a scholarship applicant will not be eligible to vote on that particular applicant's packet but they may participate in the voting process with regards to other non-related applicants.
- E. The Chairperson will present the scholarship winners' names to the Board at the annual board meeting or a special call meeting. All applicants and pastors will be advised when scholarships will be awarded in a public forum.
- F. The Chairperson reserves the right to exercise veto power if it is deemed necessary for overall fairness based on the chairperson discretion which should be based on factual information that may not have been considered during the overall scoring and review process of the scholarship scoring committee.

2. CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENTS

All members involved in the selection process will sign confidentiality agreements to be submitted to be submitted to the Chairperson prior to reviewing student applications. Applicants and parents information will be held in the strictest confidence.
